The Suburban Courts' Services program began serving victims of crimes in Maumee, Oregon, and Sylvania Municipal Courts on June 1, 1997. Currently on staff are two victim support specialists who serve in Maumee and Sylvania Municipal Courts.

Suburban Courts' Services receives referrals through local law enforcement community, prosecutor's offices, and the courts. Staff of Suburban Courts' Services provide the following services to victims of crime:

- Crisis intervention with on call staff available 24 hours a day, seven days a week
- Referral to community resources/counseling
- Orientation to the criminal justice system and explanation of victim's rights
- Case status information
- Court escort services
- Assistance in requesting compensation and restitution
- Mediation services
- Education services
